"LOVED MY BROTHER BUT HIS WIFE MORE"

Arch Johnson Takes All Blame for the Murder

HE CONFESSES IN JAIL

Arrested As Accomplice in Killing His Brother Joe, He Admits That It Was All Planned by Himself and Mrs. Johnson.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Tarboro, N. C., July 13.—"I am willing to take all the blame for the death of my brother if that will help her any, and if either of us has to die for the crime I want to be the one."

The foregoing statement was made this afternoon to your correspondent and Sheriff J. C. Crawford by Arch Johnson, in jail in Williamston, on a warrant charging him with being an accomplice before the fact in the case in which Mrs. Elizabeth Early Johnson stands charged with the murder of her husband, Joe Johnson, near Oak City, in Martin county, on the evening of Saturday, July 4.

Johnson further stated that he would not deny any statement made by Mrs. Johnson relative to the killing and the part he played in it. Prior to this occasion Arch Johnson had refused to make any statement other than that he knew nothing of the matter and that he had nothing to do with it.

"Loved His Wife More."

"I loved my brother, but I loved his wife more, and it was because of this fact that I allowed myself to get into this scrape. I bought the pistol with which the killing was done and gave it to Mrs. Johnson on Saturday morning before the killing that night.

"I knew what she was going to do with it," he said at another time.

Mrs. Johnson says that she and Arch Johnson planned the crime and that Arch told her to throw the pistol to the side of the road so that he could get it next morning. She says that he told her he would stick to her through it all and when told of his confession this afternoon stated that she was satisfied with it and that he was doing as he said he would.

"Loved Arch Johnson."

"There is no use in our telling any more stories," she says, "for God knows the truth any how; and that's what counts. All that I can say is that it was love that brought us to this, for I loved Arch Johnson."

Johnson broke down and wept bitterly as he told the story of how he was implicated and said he did not want his folks to know about it. He is about 22 years old.

Haven't Retained Attorneys.

Neither of the principals has as yet retained attorneys. Johnson will be given a preliminary hearing in the morning before Justice of the Peace L. B. Wynn.

It will be recalled that Mrs. Johnson confessed some days ago that she shot her husband, though at that time she did not implicate any one.

Arch Johnson was arrested at his home near Oak City by Sheriff Crawford and brought here and placed in jail.

OFFER REWARD FOR MISSING SISTERS

Mother at Atlanta Wants Them Dead or Alive

LETTER MADE PUBLIC

Text of Letter First Received from One of the Missing Women in Which She Told of Murdering Her Sister.

Atlanta, Ga., July 13.—Four hundred dollars reward for the finding of Mrs. Eloise Nelms Dennis and Miss Beatrice Nelms either dead or alive, was offered here today by Mrs. John W. Nelms, the wealthy mother of the missing women. It was announced that half that sum would be paid for the return of either of the women, whose mysterious disappearance while on a business and pleasure trip to Texas has aroused widespread interest.

The belief grew today among local investigators of the strange case that the death message received by Mrs. Nelms last Tuesday from San Francisco may be true. It was signed with Mrs. Dennis name and indicated that she had killed her sister in New Orleans, was preparing to kill her brother, Marshall Nelms, in San Francisco, and would then commit suicide. The letter was typewritten, but Mrs. Nelms believes the handwritten signature to be genuine. Its text made public today, follows in part:

"After sending the telegram from New Orleans, I got rid of B. there and have come out here to find Marshall and send him to follow her.

"Have sealed forever her fate. She is now in the unknown land and I am glad I did it.

"I only hope the animals of the waters will have eaten us both before you get the letters."

The typewritten note was accompanied by a note believed to have been in Mrs. Dennis' writing which indicated despondency.

STEAMER WATERLILY IS NOW COMPLETED.

Will Be Put on Run From Elizabeth City to Currituck Sound.

Elizabeth City, N. C., July 13.—The steamer Waterlily is completed and made her trial trip Saturday. She is now at Robinson's dock, where the finishing touches will be added and then she will begin her route in Currituck Sound.

The Waterlily is a side-wheeler, propelled by a gasoline engine and is the first one of the kind ever seen in this port. She was built at Hayman's boat works in Riverside avenue for Messrs. C. C. Clark, of Elizabeth City, and W. H. Hampton, of Currituck county. The side-wheel plan was adopted to overcome the grease difficulties that annoy all boatmen who operate power boats in Currituck.

STEAMER TRENTON ON THE NAGS HEAD ROUTE

Will Make Daily Trip Between Resort, Manteo and Elizabeth City

Elizabeth City, N. C., July 13.—The steamer Trenton left Nags Head and Manteo, this morning, on the first trip to Elizabeth City. The Trenton is engaged to ply on the new route between Elizabeth City and these points on a quick daily schedule, which will make the trip in 3 1-2 hours. Captain Martin Johnson is master. The schedule will be about like that formerly maintained by the steamer Hattie Creef.

Captain Johnson, Dr. Scott and other prominent business men are interested in this new transportation line.

SEEK ATTITUDE OF THE UNITED STATES

Minister of Chile Confers With Secretary Bryan

CARRANZA STANDS PAT

Constitutionalist First Chief Informs United States Through John R. Silliman That He Will Take Mexico City.

Washington, July 13.—The Brazilian minister to Mexico who is caring for the interests of the United States in that country, today telegraphed the State Department that the resignation of General Huerta in favor of Francisco Carbajal, the newly appointed minister of foreign affairs, was expected tomorrow or Wednesday.

Minister Suarez, of Chile, one of the three mediators anticipating the retirement of Huerta, sought in an informal talk with Secretary Bryan to learn what the attitude of the United States would be toward the Carbajal government. While the Washington government will not recognize Carbajal, Minister Suarez learned, that it was not disinclined to treat informally with the new administration until a transfer of power to the Constitutionalists could be effected.

General Carranza himself notified the United States through John R. Silliman, formerly American consul at Saltillo and now personal representative of President Wilson there, that only the unconditional surrender of the authorities at Mexico City would be accepted.

Compliments Carranza.

Mr. Silliman in his report spoke in complimentary terms of Carranza and said his reception by the Constitutionalist chief was most cordial. General Carranza explained why it would be impossible to hold peace parleys with Huerta delegates and said all his generals had demanded that the plan of Guadaloupe, providing that Carranza, as president ad interim, take military possession of Mexico City, be carried out to the letter.

Carranza assured the American representative that the Constitutionalist forces soon would enter Mexico City and maintain order there. He also promised that if the Huerta forces surrendered unconditionally he would give ample guarantees for the protection of life and property.

Officials here were greatly pleased at Carranza's friendly feeling toward the United States. The Constitutionalists have been informed, however, that they will not be recorded recognition if exercises are committed on their entry into Mexico City.

Headquarters Moved.

Saltillo, Mexico, July 13.—General Carranza and his official family will leave here for Monterey tomorrow morning where the temporary capital will next be established.

Many of the Constitutionalist commanders gathered for a final conference today with Carranza. The generals forming the commission which met recently at Torreon have rejoined their commands, and have been given instructions to make utmost speed in the advance on Mexico City.

All troops in this section will be transported at once to San Luis Potosi and General Pablo Gonzales and staff will proceed to that place where it is expected General Gonzales will take supreme command on Monday or Tuesday.

A report comes from San Luis Potosi that a man named Cardenas, alleged to have fired the shot which killed former President Mdero, is with the Federal garrison at San Luis Po-

COMMITTEE REPORT POSTPONED A DAY

Senate to Hear From Jones Nomination Today

CAUSE OF THE DELAY

Records of Hearings in Nomination of Jones for Federal Reserve Board Not Quite Complete—Review Entire Hearing.

Washington, July 13.—Delay in completing the record of hearings in nomination of Thomas D. Jones, of Chicago, as a member of the Federal Reserve Board, today caused the Senate banking and currency committee to postpone until tomorrow presentation of its report against Mr. Jones' confirmation.

Senator Hitchcock, acting chairman, called a meeting of the committee for tomorrow, when the completed record will be reviewed. Later, in executive session, Senator Hitchcock will submit the unfavorable report of the majority and Senator Hollis will submit a favorable minority report. With his report Senator Hitchcock will move that legislative testimony be made public, and an effort will be made to have the reports considered in open session of the Senate.

The administration fight which will be launched in earnest when the Hitchcock report goes in, promises to be the most vigorous that has characterized the Wilson regime, and influences are being brought to bear upon Senators from all parts of the country for and against the President's nominee.

When the committee meets tomorrow it does not expect to renew consideration of the nomination of Paul M. Warburg, of New York, who has declined to appear before the committee.

During discussion of business conditions in the Senate, Senator Poindexter, of Washington, introduced a resolution which would direct the Inter-State Commerce Commission to vestigate and report what part Mr. Warburg took in the financial re-organization of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, the Chicago & Alton, and other railroads. The resolution went over for future consideration.

BALLOON "GOODYEAR" WINS THIRD PLACE IN RACE.

"San Francisco, 1915" Landed Sunday Morning—Goodyear Made 300 Miles

St. Louis, July 13.—The balloon "Goodyear" Piloted by R. A. D. Preston, of Akron, O., won the national elimination race to determine the third American entrant in the international race for the James Gordon Bennett cup, which will start from Kansas City in October.

This was determined late today when a message from E. S. Cole, pilot of "San Francisco, 1915" reported that his balloon had landed Sunday morning, 11 miles southeast of McLeansboro, Ill.

The "Goodyear", which landed near Constance, Ky., was approximately 300 miles, nearly twice the distance made by its nearest competitor. It also won the endurance record, 24 hours, 45 minutes.

The official distances will be computed by the Aero Club of America.

Besides Preston, the other two American entrants in the international race will be R. H. Upson, of Akron, O., who won the international race of 1913, and by that victory brought the 1914 international race to the United States, and H. E. Honeywell, of St. Louis, who won second place in the last international race.

REMARKABLE CHAPTER OF AMERICAN FINANCE

Report of Inter-State Commerce Commission to Senate on New Haven Inquiry Tells Graphic Story of "Reckless and Profligate" Operations of That Road While Under Mellen's Control—Fortunes Lost

Washington, July 13.—The story of the "reckless and profligate" financial operations of the New Haven road, one of the most remarkable chapters in the history of American railroads and American finance, was revealed in part today by the Inter-State Commerce Commission in a report to the Senate in its investigation of that road.

It told of millions used like stage money, of corporations as pawns in a monster game with all New England's transportation as a prize, which led the New Haven into the ten years just passed from the height of prosperity to the point where a dividend has been passed, where a dissolution suit is threatening and where criminal indictments of many of the directors who figured in deals are at least a possibility.

Hampered by unwilling witnesses, by burned books and by all the mazes which lawyers invented to cover the trail, the commission estimated that, i the progress toward monopolization of New England transportation, the New Haven stockholders have lost between $65,000,000 and $90,000,000, but little of which they may recover. In return, the report said, they have on their hands properties which pay no dividends, which eat into the earnings of the parent road and which will be a burden on its capacity for many years to come.

Aided Commission.

Of the present directing board, Chairman Howard Elliott and Walker D. Hines, special counsel, the report says, "they have co-operated with the commission and rendered it substantial assistance throughout this investigation."

The New Haven combination, reared by Charles S. Mellen and approved by the late J. Pierpont Morgan and William Rockefeller, the commission finds to be clearly in violation of the Sherman anti-trust act and a monopoly in practical control of the transportation of five States.

The commission's report is unusual as regards the manner in which directors of the New Haven are scored. It speaks of criminal maladministration and negligence, asserts with positiveness that the directors knew they were were perfecting an illegal combination and says that the dream of a transportation monopoly was unsound and mischievous.

The New Haven, the commission says, employed dummy directors, manipulated accounts, used questionable methods in increasing its own stock, paid the dividends of subsidiaries to make a showing, and used many other devices to deceive stockholders and the public. It dipped into politics, was a factor in "invisible government," made large campaign contributions to the two dominant political parties, bought officials and tried to distort public opinion. All this it did, the commission says, "to carry out a scheme of private transportation monopoly imperial in its scope."

"If these directors who were faithless to their stewardship were held responsible in the courts and at the bar of public opinion for their failure to do the things they should have done, the lessons to directors who do not direct would be very salutary," says the report.

Breach of Trust.

"Most of the directors of the New Haven accepted their responsibility lightly. They failed to realize that their names gave confidence to the public and that their connection with the corporation led the public to invest. When these directors were negligent and losses resulted therefrom they were guilty of a grave dereliction of duty and a breach of trust that was morally wrong and criminal in its fruits."

Directors should be made individually liable to civil and criminal laws for the manner in which they discharge their trust. A corporation can be no better nor no worse than those who operate it. It should be just as grave a crime to plunder stockholders through a railroad corporation as it is persoally to rob an individual."

Of all the millions lost to New Haven stockholders the commission estimates that possibly $8,000,000 may be recovered by proper action. Evidence in its possession tending to show violations of the laws of New York, Massachusetts and Rhode Island has been turned over to the proper executives in those States.

The Department of Justice has been furished with a complete record of the testimony secured by the commission, but there is no Federal statute under which the government can aid the stockholders in recovering any of their losses. A suggestion is made that any expenditure in violation of the anti-trust law would be beyond the powers of the directors and raises the question of whether the directors may not be held personally responsible to satisfy any losses which occurred.

336 Subsidiary Corporations.

In its investigation the committee found that the New Haven has 336 subsidiary corporations, many of which served no purpose except "an evil one." The report, pointing out that on the New Haven board were representatives of the Pennsylvania railroad, the New York Central, the United States Steel Corporation, the Standard Oil Company, the Pullman Company and many other interests, say that [illegible] directorates of this sort ca[illegible] strongly condemned."

This, it w[illegible] at the Capitol during t[illegible]bly will have its effect u[illegible]t legislation now before [illegible]nd may end the talk abo[illegible]e provisions aimed at int[illegible]ectorates out of all the Se[illegible]t legislation. The commi[illegible]ed the question of immunity which may have been given to witnesses against criminal prosecution by the government which led the Department of Justice to urge caution in the conduct of the inquiry. It declares that only such witnesses as seemed necessary are summoned and says that evidence of "wrong doing such as was disclosed" is difficult to obtain; that "such transactions are conducted in secret and in the dark", and finds full justification for its action in the resulting discoveries.

"The insuring of honesty through the management of the great railroads of the country is a most important question before the people today", says the report in conclusion, "and only when through exposure of wrong doing and awakened public conscience, coupled with effective laws that results are produced, may railroading be placed on the high level that it should occupy. The revelations in this record make it essential for the welfare of the nation that the reckless and profligate financiering which has blighted this railroad system be ended, and until this is fully done there will be no assurance that the story of the New Haven will not be told again with the stockholders of some other railroad system as the victims."

Evidence that agents of the commission did not have an easy time securing information it desired was contained in an appendix filed with the report. On July 9, an accountant of the commission writes to Commissioner McChord, who has directed the investigation, that his efforts to get at facts about the New Haven had not been met with a friendly spirit by J. P. Morgan & Co. Brown wrote that full access to the Morgan records could not be granted him as had been promised, said he was unable to say whether he had been allowed to inspect all New Haven's transactions on their books and was given only such correspondence as the firm submitted.

New Haven Directors.

New York, July 13.—The list of directors of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, as last constituted under the presidency of Charles S. Mellen, was given out today at the New Haven offices. The complexion of the board changed from time to time during the years preceding this and the men named here were not necessarily members of the board during all the practices today complained of by the Inter-State Commerce Commission. The names follow:

William Rockefeller, New York; Charles F. Brooker, Conecticut; Edwin Milner, Conneticut; William Edwin Milner, Connecticut; William Skinner, Massachusetts; C. N. Barney, Connecticut; Charles S. METHODIST TO SELECT PLACE FOR UNIVERSITY

Trinity Withdraws Offer to Succeed Vanderbilt

Many Cities Will Make Offers of Money and Real Estate for Site to Bishops in Meeting at Atlanta Today.

Atlanta, Ga., July 13.—Consideration of the advantages and offers of different southern cities for the proposed new university of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will be begun here tomorrow by the sub-committee of the Educational Commission of the general conference of the church. Final decision in the matter is expected to be made Wednesday at a meeting of the full commission.

Various Methodist Episcopal colleges in the south, including Emory College at Oxford, Ga., and Trinity College at Durham, N. C., have indicated their willingness to be expanded into a university. It was reported tonight, however, that Trinity would withdraw its offer. In addition to the college centers, many cities, including Atlanta and Birmingham, have prepared to make large offers of land and endowment if they are selected.

The sub-committee, which will first consider the invitations, consists of Bishop W. A. Candler, of Atlanta, chairman; Bishop J. M. McCoy, of Birmingham; Dr. Plato T. Durham, of Charlotte, N. C.; Dr. A. J. Lamar, of Nashville, and W. G. M. Thomas, of Chattanooga.

It was decided at the recent general conference of the church at Oklahoma City to establish a new university on account of the controversy between the general conference and the board of trust of Vanderbilt University at Nashville over control of the latter institution.

NAVAL OFFICER IN ROLE OF DIPLOMAT

AT OPENING OF SESSION

Nation's Foreign Policy Often Hangs Upon Action and Discretion of the Commanding Officer in Far-away Port.

Newport, R. I., July 13.—How the nation's policy often hangs upon action and discretion of a naval officer commanding a warship in a far away port, ws discussed by Secretary Daniels here today at the opening of the naval war college session. He pictured the duties of the naval officer in the role of diplomat, recalled incidents in which commanders of American warships in foreign ports had opened new chapters in American history, and urged officers at the college and marine officers to train themselves in international law and the languages in preparation for such emergencies.

"The navy, in the technical diplomatic sense," said the secretary, "must leave to the Department of State the settlement of international policies, but, in the practical operations of policies affecting other nations, the action of the youngest naval officer commanding the smallest vessel in a foreign port might determine the action of our government, independent of the policies which the trained diplomats might have planned."

Mr. Daniels recalled the demand made for a salute of the Stars and Stripes by Admiral Mayo at Tampico as an example of how the action of a naval officer in a foreign country precipitated "an issue not contemplated in diplomatic channels and irrevocably committed his government to a policy of action in support of his demand."

Ambassador Jusserand, of France, and James Bryce, former British ambassador to the United States, were lauded by the speaker as "modern diplomats," who, he said, had "replaced indirectness and evasion with directness and sincerity."

"By education, by training and by character," Mr. Daniels continued, "the naval officer is not fitted for a diplomacy calling for dissembling, for saying 'yes' and meaning 'perhaps' or for 'double dealing.' If he is to serve his country abroad for its 'good' it must be a service that is marked by frankness and sincerity, and it is that sort of service which made the diplomacy of Perry and Dewey as honorable and useful as the eminence as sailors, and which has given them a permanent place in the affections of their countrymen. Certainly we may regard Perry as the greatest diplomat which the American navy has ever furnished, although most of its representatives have never failed to exhibit the high gifts of diplomacy when called upon to face the situation which required the exercise of the art.

"There is very recent proof that Perry was a true prophet when he foresaw friendship between the United States and Japan. In the present Mexican trouble the Japanese have been scrupulous to prevent the shipment of arms by Japanese manufacturers."

"If all American diplomacy in the Spanish-American war had been modeled after that of Perry's, the secretary declared, "the United States might not have yielded to the temptation of imperialism. If our government had followed closely the diplomatic pact set by another great commodore of the United States navy who himself followed the diplomacy of Perry and squared his every action with the basic doctrines of our republic, we would not have strayed so far afield. We would at least have been consistent in our diplomacy; we would not have laid down one rule for Cuba and another for the Philippines."

Recalling various incidents in which American officers had had a part in the writing of international history, Secretary Daniels spoke of summary action taken by Rear Admiral Bonham ten years ago during revolutionary disturbances at Rio Janiero when landing cargoes from the United States was long delayed. He demanded that the cargoes be unloaded, and punctuated the demand with a six-pound shell. The admiral gained his point.

Secretary Daniels said he would like to draw a picture of the naval officer "as the man before the gun, not the captain on the bridge, giving signals to fire, but the captain, who before the anchor has touched the harbor's bottom has stepped into his launch and gone ashore to avert by his sound good sense, by his tact, by his judgment, by his courtesy and diplomatic manner, by his thorough knowledge of international law and custom, the necessity for using guns at all, and to whom the country is eternally indebted for the peaceful ending of the crisis which rendered his presence necessary in the first place.

"When you stop to think of it," said the secretary, "no representative of our government, official or unofficial, can command such respect or can impress another country so deeply with the power of his government as the captain of a warship lying in the harbor with its decks cleared, perhaps, for action, and its ominous 12-inch guns trained on the town. Believe me, gentlemen, that man is going to be seriously listened to by every official within range of the ship's armament."

NOTHING BUT HOLD-UP AND POLITICAL TRICK

Reynolds' Statement as to Suit by Waynesville Hotel

To Collect Claim for Entertainment of Convention Delegates—Says Suit Followed Visit of Gudger—Denies Claim.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Asheville, N. C., July 13.—Following the publication of a story to the effect that suit has been filed against Robert R. Reynolds in Haywood county seeking to collect $521.50 balance due for entertainment of convention delegates by the management of the Suyeta Park hotel, Mr. Reynolds in a signed statement tonight charges that the proceedure is a hold-up and political trick.

He says that the suit was instituted following the visit of Congressman James M. Gudger, Jr., to Waynesville and that Congressman Gudger visited the office of Capt. Hannah just before the latter filed the complaint.

Mr. Reynolds' statement is to the effect that the management of the hotel tried to make him pay $200 more than he owed, simply because he is a candidate for Congress. He says he offered to pay the amount due, but that it was turned down because he wouldn't pay more than was agreed upon whom the hotel agreed to entertain his delegates.

RATE HEARING WILL LIKELY CLOSE TODAY

No Idea When Decision Will Be Announced.

Bickett and Thom to be Heard Today. Elliott, Wright, Cocye, Winston and Cansler Heard Yesterday at Asheville.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Asheville, N. C., July 13.—Indications are that the hearing of the North Carolina Intra-State Freight Rate Commission will close tomorrow night. The arguments of all attorneys interested in the case are in with the exception of Attorney General T. W. Bickett and A. P. Thom, who will speak tomorrow, and immediately following the presentation of their arguments, the commissioners will take the Justice bill under consideration. No idea is entertained as to when they will make known their decision as to whether the rates named in the Justice bill shall be put into effect.

At this afternoon's session J. A. Wright, of counsel for the Seaboard Air Line, opened the argument for the railroads of this State which are fighting the proposed rates, and he was followed by L. H. Cocke, of the Norfolk & Western.

MARINES ARE ORDERED TO STRIFE-TORN HAITI

Sent by Navy Department to Protect Property.

Force of Seven Hundred American Marines to Protect Americans and Their Property Should It Become Necessary.

Washington, July 13.—Seven hundred marines today were ordered assembled at Guantanamo, Cuba; to be held in readiness for service in revolution-torn Haiti and Santo Domingo.

The Navy Department acted at the request of Secretary Bryan, who asked that the fleet be prepared to deal with any emergency that might arise on the turbulent island. The marines will be gathered from those now on duty in Mexican waters, and from the marine barracks in Philadelphia and Norfolk.

At Guantanamo the force will be only a small body. It is the intention of the American government to force a conclusion to the revolution unless they listen to the warnings already given. The situation at San Domingo has become to be regarded as almost hopeless while at Haiti conditions are little better.

Reed Attacks Pending Trade Commission Bill

Thinks Inter-State and Judiciary Committees Should Get Together and Combine All Anti-Trust Measures—Democrat.

Washington, July 13—Attacking the Inter-State Trade Commission bill on the floor of the Senate today, Senator Reed, of Missouri, Democratic member of the judiciary committee, urged that the inter-State commerce and judiciary committees should get together to work out the trust legislation jointly, with a view of consolidating all pending measures on the subject.

Senator Reed's attack was directed particularly at the section relating to "unfair competition." Later it developed that an unsuccessful effort already had been made by the inter-State commerce committee to have the judiciary committee co-operate with it. Senators Reed and Hoke Smith, of Georgia, were reported to have looked with favor on the suggestion, but other members of the judiciary committee declined to yield sole jurisdiction over the Clayton anti-trust bill.

The suggestion for joint sessions is

Wilson Invites Other Men of Business to Confer With Him.

Washington, July 13.—Convinced that his talks with J. P. Morgan, Henry Ford and other leading business men have done much to show the country that the Democratic administration is the friend, not the enemy of honest business, President Wilson today planned further conferences. He invited S. R. Bertron, head of a New York banking house, to call at the White House Wednesday.

iness conditions and his anti-trust programme with Mr. Bertron, and it was understood today that the nomination of Paul Warburg as a member of the Federal Reserve Board might be taken up at the conference.

Mr. Wilson also will see a delegation of Kansas City, Mo., business men Wednesday and other leaders in the business world are expected to call within the next few weeks. Letters received from men who already have talked with the President have greatly encouraged him.

LARRY DOYLE

Red McGhee says:

By all the rules of ol' man Hoyle a feller by the name o' Doyle should make a hit with me. There's somethin' 'bout that good ol' name that sounds as if it might a came from somewhere near McGhee. Since big Dan Brouthers saw him go in Springfield seven years ago he's been a Giant star. His first year up he turned right to an' showed 'em he knew what to do to push his stock 'bove par.

He's captain now an' goin' great—a vet, b'gosh, at twenty-eight — the infield keystone man. Day in, day out he does his part—he's won his way into the heart of every Gotham fan. His fielding out on second base stands out just like the ol' case ace you pick up in the draw. King Lajoie, of Cleveland town, will soon be passin' laurels down to this child of McGraw.

He swats just like the veteran king—gives the ball the same fierce sing an' whales it out o' sight. He comes up fourth—the cleanup post an' makes good every time almost, with Mr. Timely Suite. He's got the power behind his stick to turn the two an' three-base trick —this port-side son of clout. The rep he's made can't ever spoil, we'll doff our lids to Larry Doyle long after Time yells: "Out!"

"ALL WORK AND NO PLAY GETS A FELLAHS ANGORA"

THEATRICAL

Politics, the kind that has made the country stir, will be flashed on the big screen at the Grand Theatre today in the greatest dramatic film ever created—"The Ring and the Man," by Cyrus Townsend Brady. It is with peculiar pleasure that The Grand management announces the presentation of this film, in four big parts, and with the noted actor, Bruce McRae, he of "Nobody's Widow" and "Nearly Married" fame, in the leading role. The production is another one made by the famous Players Company and is presented by no less a distinguished manager than Mr. Daniel Frohman.

"The Ring and the Man" has been pronounced by eminent critics the greatest, the most gripping political story ever written, and as politics provide a most fascinating subject, in fact, a timely one, the intense interest in this story can well be imagined. It is a story of a man who reforms and who, when he tries to lead a big reform fight, is assailed by political grafters and threatened with exposure by the "bosses," but he wins out, after a terrific struggle.

In addition to the four-reel wonder, a comedy picture will be shown. The price of admission today will be the lowest ever charged for this big Daniel Frohman production, being but 10 cents for adults and 5 cents for children. The performances will commence at 11 o'clock this morning and run continuously until 11 o'clock tonight.

At The Bijou Today.

The popular photoplay house presents, right from the reel factory, a release of less than a week ago, to head its mammoth bill today, a stupendous Imp two-reel drama, "The Adventures of a Girl Reporter," one of the most interesting, thrilling and touching stories of the times. Seen in the leading role is the peerless Miss Ethel Grandin and dashing Ed Mortimer, who play the roles of reporters. They are ably assisted by John Grey, Mr. B. Craven and a bunch of other screen favorites. In "The Girl Reporter's Adventures" a page from the adventurous life of a girl reporter is spread out before us, and it is mighty engrossing. With her winsomeness, charm and cleverness as an actress, Miss Ethel Grandin puts a new life into the story, and it has a gripping plot, plenty of action and a thrilling wind up. Of course, the love interest is there. The atmosphere is thoroughly metropolitan, and it's a story that has a new twist to it.

"Love and Electricity" is a brand new, rousing Joker comedy featuring Max Asher, Bob Vernon and other stars, and will be one of the best comic numbers of the week.

Arousing Keystone comedy, "Suspended Ideal," furnishes a thrilling and interesting wind up to a big day's bill, and will be found really one of the best of these big Keystone feature comedies.

ANOTHER STEP IN BOOZE FIGHT IN VIRGINIA TAKEN.

Petition Signed by Nearly Seventy Thousand Voters.

Richmond, Va., July 13.—Out of an estimated total of 140,000 qualified voters in Virginia, 69,936 have signed petitions calling upon Governor Henry C. Seiart to call a State-wide election to decide whether or not liquor shall continue to be sold in the State. The petitions have been certified to by the secretary of the commonwealth and will be presented to Governor Stuart tomorrow. He is expected to call the election for September 22nd, as provided by the enabling act passed by the last legislature.

Of those who signed the petitions 57,356 come from dry counties. Richmond furnished only 1,976, while Norfolk had 2,137. The total is four times the number necessary to authorize the calling of an election. The enabling act provides that if the "drys" carry the election, Virginia will banish liquor on November 1, 1916.

MAY OUR TROOPS PASS THROUGH BLEASEDOM?

Question Squarely Up to the South Carolina Governor.

Craig Makes Formal Application—Returns From Camp Glenn—Wake Forest Trustees Meet Tomorrow at Raleigh.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 13.—The question of just what the attitude of Governor Cole Blease is in the matter of the troops of this State passing through South Carolina on their way to the Federal encampment at Augusta, beginning August 4, will be ascertained by Governor Craig at once. He wrote a letter to Governor Blease today, making the formal official request for the North Carolina troops to traverse South Carolina on this trip and expects to have a reply within a few days. Governor Blease has been widely quoted as declaring that the troops of other States shall not pass through South Carolina for this encampment and it is generally admitted that he has the power to prevent it. Governor Craig says that if permission is refused the North Carolina troops will be taken to Wilmington and go by boat to Savannah and thence to Augusta for the encampment.

Dr. F. D. Owen, of the United States Department of Agriculture, has arrived from Washington, being assigned to co-operative work with the veterinary division of the North Carolina Department of Agriculture.

Governor Craig returned this morning from Morehead and Camp Glenn, where he spent several days with the Third regiment, North Carolina National Guard, inspecting the troops and the camp. He expresses himself as especially well pleased with the showing the officers and men made. The governor did all the stunts, including shooting the government rifle range. Indeed, he brought back with him the exceptionally good record of having hit the target 23 times out of a possible 25 shots.

Hugh Chatham for Senate.

There is much gratification here over the announcement that Hon. Hugh G. Chatham will be the member of the State Senate from Forsyth county next winter, the county Democratic convention having just nominated him with conditions such that his election is assured. For the lower House the Forsyth Democrats have nominated Phillip F. Hanes, of Winston-Salem, and Walter A. Mickle, of Vienna. Mr. Chatham, who heads the legislative ticket, is a prominent manufacturer and was president of the North Carolina Railroad and is especially active in the business affairs of his section and the State at large

Wake Forest Medical Department.

The trustees of Wake Forest College meet in Raleigh Wednesday and will undertake the re-organization of the medical department of the college, the purpose being to put the school on a most approved basis in the rating it shall have among the medical authorities of the country.

At this meeting Wednesday there will be also the election of a temporary successor to Dr. B. F. Sledd, of the chair of English, who is to spend a year traveling in Europe, being a beneficiary of Kahn traveling scholarship. Also there will be chosen a temporary substitute for Professor Hubbel, who will persue special studies in Columbia University the coming year. There will be chosen, too, an assistant for Prof. C. E. Drewer on account of his increased duties in becoming dean of the college.

The council on medical education of the American Medical Association has recently voted to advance the medical department of Shaw University here for the negroes from Class C to Class B, an advance that the management of the University has been striving for a long while. The school has also changed the medical department from a four-year to a two-year course.

Still No Definite Ruling.

There is still no definite ruling by Attorney General T. W. Bickett as to the fund of the laboratory of hygiene division of the State Board of Health for the guidance of the State treasurer in the matter of weather the legislative appropriation for its maintenance is $8,000 per year or $4,000, and State Treasurer Lacy is standing pat in his determination to honor no more warrants as to this department until there is positive ruling on the question. He holds that if the appropriation is only $4,000 per year then it has already used its apportionment of funds for the two years, 1913 and 1914, and can have no more, but if the 1911 and 1913 acts construed together really mean that the laboratory is to have $8,000 per year and Attorney General Bickett will say so in an official ruling, the money will be forthcoming, but that being a bonded officer, he must have the law on his side.

He explains that in the rush of business, and the State auditor having issued the warrants for the division on the basis of $8,000 per year at the instance of the head of the health department, Dr. W. S. Rankin, the treasury force had paid the former warrants on that basis but that he had discovered the discrepancy in time to call for a ruling before more money had been allowed the division than the $4,000 for the two years and there was nothing for him to do but call for a construction of the statutes. And if, as he holds, the 1913 act is a full substitute for the 1911 statute and the laboratory is entitled under the acts to only the $4,000 already utilized, then the Council of State can stand by him, assume their part of the responsibility and authorize the borrowing of an additional $8,000 for the laboratory until the meeting of the next Legislature and put the matter up to that body with the statement that the council had done the best that could be done without closing down so very important and necessary a division of the State government, one vital to the health of the people.

SOUTH CAROLINA MOB LYNCHES NEGRO WOMAN

She is Taken From Jail and Hanged on Sunday.

Said to Have Confessed Killing 12-Year-Old White Girl Near Elloree Saturday—Riddled With Bullets.

Orangeburg, S. C., July 13.—Rosa Carson, a negress, was taken from the jail at Elloree near here Sunday, and lynched by a mob. She is said to have confessed to killing the 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Bell, Saturday. The child was beaten to death with a stick of wood.

The negress was taken to the scene of the crime by the mob and hanged to a tree. Afterwards the body was riddled with bullets. The alleged confession was made just previous to the hanging.

Searching parties found the body of the murdered child early Sunday after an all night hunt, partly hidden beneath a log and covered with wounds. The child disappeared late Saturday while she was going to a field to drive home a cow.

Suspicion was directed toward the negress on account of recent trouble with the child's family. With her sister she was arrested Sunday. As soon as the arrests became generally known a mob was formed, marched to the jail, battered in the door and took possession of the two women. The sister of the accused woman was later released when she is said to have admitted that her sister killed the child.

About 30 negroes watched the lynching but offered no resistance.

WORK ON SLOAN ESTATE.

Not Believed That There Are Any Gold Deposits.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Newbern, N. C., July 13.—While several months must necessarily elapse before that large estate is completed and ready for occupancy, work has already started on the magnificent home being erected a few miles west of Newbern by Dr. Earl S. Sloan, the millionaire liniment manufacturer of Boston, Mass.

A few days ago minerals which were supposed to be specimens of gold and iron were found on the Sloan estate and samples of these have been sent away to be tested. The government chemist who discovered the minerals gave as his opinion that there was no actual deposit on the place but rather that the specimens were washed down in the river from a higher altitude, possibly from the western part of North Carolina.

NEW TOBACCO DRYING MACHINE.

Plant Being Installed at Wilson an Interesting Sight.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wilson, N. C., July 13.—One of the interesting sights of the town is the new tobacco drying machine being installed by Mr. W. T. Clark. Mr. Clark purchased the building formerly occupied by the Liberty Warehouse and during the past few months has been at work converting it into a drying and packing plant for leaf tobacco. The newly installed machine will handle 40,000 pounds of leaf tobacco each day and will do the work in 40 minutes that in olden times, before the invention of machines, took as many days.

Leary in the vicinity of Richlands, runs high, and Sheriff Henderson has taken every precaution to defend the negro in case any outbreak is made.

The committee on civic improvements of the chamber has been instructed to secure written options on available sites, and the chamber expects to take action on August 4th, looking to the purchase. Two sites are under consideration already, both located in the eastern end of the city adjacent to the high and grammar schools. A whole city block will probably be purchased.

JOHN F. LUCAS DEAD.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., July 13.—John F. Lucas, for many years a deputy sheriff of Beaufort county, is dead at the age of 66, says a report from there. Deputy Lucas was a model officer and a man who devoted his life to sacrifice. Dependent relatives had required his income for years, and Lucas gave it ungrudgingly. He never married. He lived with a niece.

Lucas was one of the last of the Confederate regulars in this section of the State.

MUCH BUILDING AT WILSON

Estimated That Investments for Year Ending September 1st Will Exceed $750,000.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wilson, N. C., July 13.—It is almost impossible to briefly tell the story of the building activity of Wilson just at this season. Over in the south part of town, the immense brick and cement building for the Export Leaf Tobacco Company attracts the attention of passengers arriving on the Norfolk Southern as the train approaches the town. This building will be completed for the fall tobacco season and will be the largest single plant in Wilson. Jumping across town to the extreme northern part, passengers arriving on the Atlantic Coast Line always ask what big factory is being erected.

The ground is being prepared, material has been assembled for the new plant to be used by the Hackney Buggy Company. This plant is directly across the Atlantic Coast Line track from the plant of the Hackney Wagon Company, a distinct industrial concern. The two plants will have one section in common and that will be the part of the plant which develops the electric current to be used in driving all of the machinery. When completed, the buggy company will have a plant equal to the best in the Southern States. The buildings occupied by the Hackney Buggy Company, located in the business section, will be remodeled and used for other purposes.

In addition to the two large enterprises, there are other goodly sized contracts being completed, two of the largest leaf tobacco warehouses are doubling their floor space, big brick buildings a solid block in length, will be the result. Another warehouse is adding one-third to its capacity. On Nash street, next to the Citizens' Bank, a two-story brick building with pressed brick front, modern in every detail, is nearing completion and is already leased. Over $100,000 is being expended in the erection of dwelling houses. The city is building a light and power plant and this will soon be ready for the machinery and represents a total expenditure of $80,000. Then will come the expenditure of $80,000 on the streets, already planned and bonds voted. The new gas plant, promised for the winter means the expenditure of $100,000. Last, but by no means least, the graded school building No. 2, almost ready for the interior work and surely to be finished for the opening of the fall term at a cost of $30,000.

This is really one of the biggest years in the history of the town and it is almost impossible to know what figures will cover the cost of the building operations now in progress and recently completed. Very conservative figures would be upwards of $750,000 in the 12 months ending with September 1, 1914.

INSTITUTE WORK BEGINS AT STATE NORMAL TODAY

And Will Continue to the End of the Summer School Term.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., July 13.—Beginning Tuesday institute work in connection with the summer school of the Normal college will start and continue two weeks, bringing the school to a close. This will give an increase in the registration of over 200 making the total attendance this summer fully 500. This institute work will have no connection with the already organized programme of courses but will be an entirely distinct programme.

In addition to the regular summer school faculty, lectures and addresses will be given by Supt. E. L. Hughes, of the Greenville, S. C. schools; and by Mrs. Bertha Burridge, of Vermont. Mr. Hughes will show the teachers how to construct devices and apparatus for the study of geography and will be here one week. Mrs. Burridge will lecture on the relation of the school to the community and will be here two weeks. Other features will be added next week.

CORN CROP VERY PROMISING

Prospect in Wayne and Duplin Best in Years—Townships to Vote on Railroad Bonds.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Mt. Olive, N. C., July 13.—Judging from appearances and from reports furnished by the farmers themselves, this year's corn crop now bids fair to be one of the best in years; that is, in this section. Before the rains of the past few days had fallen, corn was beginning to fail very fast, and the farmers were beginning to be very much downcast and fearful that the crop would be a complete failure. However, it seems that the rains came "just in the nick of time," as a result of which no crop in years has at this season of the year looked more promising of a bountiful harvest than the present one does at this time.

Cotton and tobacco have also made wonderful improvement since the rains, tobacco especially having improved in appearance so much so that, what at one time was thought would be a very poor crop—not much more than half a crop—now promises to be a pretty fair average crop. The harvesting of the tobacco will, however, be much later than usual, due to the dry weather prevailing at the usual time of setting this crop, as a result of which a stand was finally secured with much difficulty and fully a month later than usual.

To Help Build Railroad.

Tuesday, August 13th, the qualified voters of Brogden, Grantham and Indian Springs townships will determine by popular vote whether or not they shall aid in the construction of the Central Carolina railroad by the issuance of bonds of $40,000 each for Brogden and Grantham and $25,000 for Indian Springs.

Mr. W. J. Edwards, prime mover in the interest of this road, has been here and in this section for several days past, meeting with the people at the various voting precincts and discussing with them the question of the issuance of bonds and the consequent advantages of a railroad to the section through which it is proposed to build the Carolina Central; and interest in the matter is steadily increasing, with little doubt that a verdict in favor of the issuance of bonds will be returned at the polls August 13th.

TWO NERVOUS WOMEN

Made Well By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I had a severe case of nervous prostration, with palpitation of the heart, constipation, headaches, dizziness, noise in my ears, timid, nervous, restless feelings and sleeplessness.

"I read in the paper where a young woman had been cured of the same troubles by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound so I threw away the medicines the doctor left me and began taking the Compound. Before I had taken half a bottle I was able to sit up and in a short time I was able to do all my work. Your medicine has proved itself able to do all you say it will and I have recommended it in every household I have visited."—Mrs. MARY JOHNSTON, 210 Siegel Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Another Bad Case.

Ephrata, Pa.—"About a year ago I was down with nervous prostration. I was pale and weak and would have hysteric spells, sick headaches and a bad pain under my shoulder-blade. I was under the care of different doctors but did not improve. I was so weak I could hardly stand long enough to do my dishes.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me well and happy and I have begun to gain in weight and my face looks healthy now."—Mrs. J. W. HORNBERGER, R. No. 3, Ephrata, Pa.

Virginia Bull Moosers have gone back to the Republicans. They were only stray Republicans, most of whom sooner or later will find their way back to the fold.

Mary Garden continues to dress to suit the weather. When the weather is real hot she adds more atmosphere to the absolutely necessary clothing which she uses with it.

The G. O. P. elephant is not saying much and is doing less, but it is satisfied that it will sooner or later have its trunk packed full of returning Bull Moosers.

A New York paper announces that "the prettiest girl in the world has just landed in New York." It is not stated what part of North Carolina the girl is from.

So live your life and so guard your remarks that you won't have to look under every table and in every nook and corner of the office or the house to see that no dictagraph is keeping tab on you.

There are a great many beautiful women in Washington. They go to Washington because the National capital is a splendid city, in addition to the fact that it is now the seat of Democracy.

The Atlanta Journal's hunt for a "perfect husband" may be rewarded if it will find a widow whose old man died and left her enough insurance money on which to enjoy herself the balance of her life.

Senators and representatives had better rally to the support of President Wilson so they won't have to take chances on making a satisfactory explanation when they face the people for re-election.

A fund has been raised in New York to get rid of quacks, but the probability is that those who subscribe to the fund practice as much quackery as any of the quacks. The other fellow is always the quack and we are not.

"While the lamp holds out to burn, The vilest sinner may return." Some of them may take a notion to return a few things, but General Villa has no idea of returning a thing that has been coming to him during the past few years.

Now comes a Hungarian with a proposition to graft hair on baldheads. Meanwhile, other grafters will continue to warn baldheaded people that their hair restorers are the only remedies guaranteed to grow a full head of hair on a door knob.

Says the Washington Post: "Congressman Bowdler proposes to tax titles." Of course that would raise a big revenue, but if it is proposed to pay off the national debt, he should propose a bill conferring titles on all rich women who are willing to pay a big price.

It is said that chaos prevails in Mexico and the Balkan countries. During and immediately after war, what else could be expected? Incessant agitation, uncompromising attitudes, dissatisfaction and intolerance sooner or later result in war and then chaos comes.

Democratic officials in Washington have saved large amounts by the economical administration of their offices. That is one reason the country needed a Democratic administration and it was fully expected that the people would see extravagance cut out as well as inefficiency and graft.

For several reasons, North Carolina is deeply concerned about who is to be the next governor of South Carolina. If we have to intervene in that State during the next two years, we would like to do business with a governor who would treat us right. In August, South Carolina is going to try to nominate a governor and it is hoped she won't pick out one that everybody wants to jump on just as soon as they get a glimpse of him.

THE FARMERS' DEAF EAR.

The esteemed Washington Post seems to be trying to put a bug in the ear of the farmers and it seems as if that paper is attempting to lead the rural citizenship up to the point of going back on the Democratic administration for what it is accused of doing against the farmers. The farmers vote every two years and during the year in which an election is held everybody gets worried over how the farmers are treated. During the other years, the farmer has to hoe his own row and take care of himself.

The Post tells us that "the American farmer is an object of solicitude on the part of all politicians and political parties during a campaign, but his interests are sometimes strangely forgotten after election day." Of course, the farmers know that. They found it out long ago when the Republicans were in power. About all they could hear after a Republican Congress got elected was "protection for manufacturers," while they were innocent bystanders during gigantic fights over tariff bills in which the main proposition was to inflict punishment on the pauper labor of Europe by levying a tax on American consumers so manufacturers could get rich. Solicitude in those days was about protective tariffs, ship subsidies and special privilege legislation of various kinds, while the farmers, constituting the majority of consumers and producers of the country, were a part and parcel of the crowd to be exploited under tariffs aimed to give all manufacturers a cinch.

Now, however, it is a splendid idea for every one of us to worry about the farmers. Democrats think they ought to vote the Democratic ticket early and often, and Republicans are pretty well satisfied they will do it unless they can persuade the farmers that the Wilson administration has done things that will just about compel a farmer to sell out and move to Canada. The Post is kind of helping along on that line, and, among other things, it invites farmers to look here what's been done to 'em:

"The farmer is preparing to harvest enormous crops this year, and ordinarily this fact would be sufficient answer to any inquiry as to his state of mind. But the farmer, for the first time in his life, is facing competition from abroad, which cuts down the prices he receives for his produce. Meats are coming in from Argentina, cattle from Canada, eggs from China, citrus fruits from Italy, and other foodstuffs from Europe, Australia, and South America. The low tariff serves to offset the prosperity brought by big crops. At the same time, the farmer sees shipping rates to Europe go up, in competition with other countries. He must pay an income tax if he is at all prosperous. He notes that the price of food is rising in the cities, but he gets none of the increase. The middlemen see to it that the farmer receives no more than before."

We guess the wheat farmers, whose surplus wheat goes to Europe, know European and Asiatic wheat is not coming to this country in competition with them, and that when steamship rates are increased on wheat exports the burden is on the fellow on the other side. The consumer of American wheat in Europe pays the freight.

Cotton growers know they have no competition with European cotton, and that if rates to Europe are increased the consumers of cotton over there—why, they pay the freight. American farmers are mostly exporters, or their products constitute the main commodities of America's export trade. However, the farmer is only the producer, and the exportation is done by the middleman. The importer of wheat or cotton belongs the middleman's class.

Sure, some beef is coming here from Argentina and a few eggs and other things to eat are coming from China and other foreign parts, but there are millions of farmers who get the benefit, if there is any, for 40,000,000 of them out of 50,000,000, say, buy their meats. Nevertheless it might be a little tough on the American packers and the Beef Trust, for they have to meet a little competition. It has no effect on their export trade, for the competition in that particular is directly with either South America or Australia. The cattle raisers import more cattle than they export, hence they now have a chance to increase the cattle supply.

The Post can't entertain the farmers a little bit along any of those lines. If the farmer has to pay an income tax it is lucky, if he has the income. At any rate he is not discriminated against, since all the income class has to pay the same as he does. Of course, the middlemen in the cities handle farm products for their own benefit. They always did. The fact that they keep on doing it is contrary to the wishes of the Wilson administration and it is not backing up the middlemen in any particular. In fact, the middlemen flourished during old Republican days, but the Republicans couldn't help it. No law could be passed for electrocuting middlemen for politics only, so the producers themselves are about the only folks who can organize and put the middleman on the bum.

Farmers are right intelligent people, so Republican, Progressive and Democratic arguflers had better give out some real appeals to their common sense, if it is proposed to catch them in all kinds of political nets.

GREAT AUTOMOBILE FACTORY IN WILMINGTON.

Wilmington may be the site of the largest automobile factory in the world, if it is selected by Mr. Henry H. Ford as the location for the supplementary factory which he proposes to establish in the South Atlantic States. Mr. Ford, head of the greatest automobile works in the world, has announced his intention to do that, and certainly he has picked out a territory of marvelous prosperity and unlimited possibilities.

Wilmington is in the territory which looks so good to Mr. Ford, but if he does not come here and look this city over he may make a mistake and locate his factory at some other point. Of course, he would not make much of a mistake to locate it in any of the eligible points in the Southeastern States, but when a great manufacturer wants to do the very best thing for himself and his immense interests, it would be a pity for him not to know that Wilmington is the very place to suit his business.

Manufacturers should never make the mistake of not looking around when they want to locate a factory. They should not be in such a hurry that they are liable to pick out any old place instead of a location with the ideal advantages possessed by such a business and commercial center as Wilmington. It is a mark of good judgment to locate the factory where the machines are wanted. It is a vast territory, this South Atlantic region, and when a factory of any kind is to be located in it Wilmington is the place for it.

Wilmington can't help being the most eligible place. People with good judgment locate factories on account of their advantages for the procurement of raw materials and for the distribution of the finished products. Geographically, Wilmington is the point from which to cover a radius extending over every State from Virginia to Alabama. The map indicates that, and it is always a good idea to consult a map so as to get a good line on the territory to be considered.

Wilmington is an ocean gateway and railroad center, hence it has the double advantages of water and rail for transportation. Naturally, Wilmington is cut out for a manufacturing port, and it is known by well posted manufacturers that large establishments ought to be located at a port with all the desirable adaptabilities and facilities, for the reason that a factory is most eligibly located when it is established where it can engage in both the domestic and export trade.

Manufacturers used to think only of the domestic trade, but now that the Panama Canal is to be opened for traffic, they also have an eye for the export trade. Even if they didn't, they know that a port gives large opportunities for coastwise trade along the entire Atlantic and along the Gulf coast as well.

If we were going to locate a factory of any kind we would get right on the train and make for Wilmington. Other cities have been quick to communicate with Mr. Ford about their advantages, and if Wilmington has not done the same, he should not think of hastily deciding to enter into a great enterprise without looking over every eligible point in the Southeast. In that way he can find out that in justice to his great interests he would not think of having a factory at any place else than Wilmington.

MR. BUTLER ON WILMINGTON.

The Raleigh News and Observer on Sunday carried a strong production by Mr. Bion H. Butler with reference to Wilmington and the Cape Fear, and it is needless to say that the writer handled the subject in the masterful style which characterizes all his published articles. Wilmington and Southport people deeply appreciate his kind words and lay very great store by his splendid exploitation of the potentialities and possibilities so conspicuous here.

Mr. Butler draws a powerful pen picture when he writes, and it gratifies Wilmington that he came here and looked the city over with a view to giving her the benefit of his helpful observations. He has a good eye for making a survey of material resources and seeing possibilities, and certainly his article does great credit to the potential factors as he sees them on the Cape Fear. He was liberal and laudatory of Wilmington's notable progress, and his insight into the marvelous development here was keen and effectively drawn upon to give prominence to Wilmington's achievements and opportunities.

Mr. Butler grasps the immense scope of the Cape Fear ocean gateway and he strongly emphasizes some features of its potentialities and possibilities. He sees at Southport all the natural advantages for a coaling station, and in a general way he impresses North Carolina with the prime importance of its port. His article will enable North Carolinians to more fully appreciate the magnitude of the State's commercial opportunities by reason of the present and future development of the port.

The Star greatly appreciates Mr. Butler's able and impressive article and is deeply sensible of his kind and appreciative references to The Star and its achievements for itself and for Wilmington. His article will be reproduced in The Star in a few days and we are sure that those who have not already read it will do so with intense interest and great gratification.

Dr. J. H. Francis, superintendent of the Los Angeles public schools, in his address before the National Educational Association, attacked the common schools. A great many schools are so common they ought to be attacked, but President Francis attacked on the wrong line. He declared that no girl should be permitted to study algebra and a whole lot of other things that are taught in the schools. Of course, if he wants girls to leave school without knowing much of anything, he is taking the right position to emphasize that idea. Otherwise, he was indulging in the tommy rot variety of nonsense.

The idea of some people is that when a number of ordinary men and one representative of Big Business call on President Wilson he should keep all the ordinary ones waiting in the anteroom so he can get the benefit of all that the Big Business man knows about conducting the government of a country of 100,000,000 people. The plan which Big Business would suggest would be to "do nothing," "don't start anything," "let well enough alone," and especially "let us alone."

Of course, there are two kinds of Georgia peaches, but in making a choice between Elberta peaches and Atlanta "peaches" we don't propose to betray our predilliction and expose our discrimination by casting every one of our votes for the Atlanta kind. We know how we stand on the question but it is not necessary to say a word about it.

CURRENT COMMENT.

To our mind the State Farmers' Union acts with wisdom in deciding to have nothing to do with politics as an organization. It is the part of wisdom it seems to us to allow the individual members of this or any similar organization to vote according to their personal convictions. In fact, it is the only safe course to follow, for the members of such organization would resent anything like dictation in the matter of how they are to vote.—Raleigh News and Observer.

We had been under the impression that the political activities of the Socialists in North Carolina were confined to the Winston-Salem district, but in the Tenth district they have put up a man for Congress, Mr. J. J. Minor being the nominee. The Sylvan Valley News does not think much of his chances of winning, but says the Socialists "have chosen to represent them a man who will not fear to speak his thought, nor have lack of thought to speak."—Charlotte Observer.

A Kansas bank president writes to his brother in New York: "Business may be dull in the East, but Kansas, Nebraska and Oklahoma have never had such prosperity." In the single county where the writer lives 3,000,000 bushels of wheat will be sold for $2,000,000, the oats are running 60 bushels to the acre, the rye is six feet high, and the first cutting of alfalfa is two tons to the acre. All this prosperity isn't going to be confined to the States where it originates. The farmers will spend their money, and in the East we have things to sell to them, and the railroads will have their crops to haul. Europe has a poor wheat crop, and already large quantities of our wheat have been bought for export.—Philadelphia Record.

One of our Charlotte Greek friends gave us a little inside history today anent the purchasing of the two American battleships by Greece. He says the money, some twelve millions of dollaas, was raised by patriotic Greeks residing in America and the ships were bought from us and presented as a gift to the mother country. It seems that the transaction was conducted through a Greek residing in Norfolk who handled the contributions large and small for his countrymen, scattered throughout America. The two ships, formerly the Idaho and Mississippi, have been re-named Lemnos, after an island of Greece, on which the Turks have cast covetous eyes, and Kilksi, which is the place where the Greeks and Bulgarians met in battle last year, both sides losing in round numbers 15,000 men. The Greeks are a patriotic people and can always be depended on to stick to their country in case of trouble.—Charlotte News.

A condition exists in this State, starting two years ago, that politicians never expect to see, viz: Republicans who bolt; or to be more explicit, Republicans who have bolted their party and refuse to have anything to do with the old ship or the new party. Reference is made to members of the Progressive party. They deserted the parent organization, along with Roosevelt, two years ago. Predictions were freely made that the two wings would come together, but nothing was doing. This year conditions are the same. Perhaps nothing could be gained in this Congressional district if both parties should fuse, but there is no prospect. Mr. Martin F. Douglas, a young man of promise, has been nominated by the Progressives as a candidate for Congress. In fact, had he not been nominated no one could have received a vote in this county, because no other candidate entered the legalized primary. Mr. Douglas, however, was duly entered and voted for, hence he is in shape to be in the race. Such being the case it would seem that the old line brethren would rally to his support, but so far as can be seen they would vote for the "Old Boy" first. They are not fighting mad; they are not mad at Mr. Douglas; they are mad at the Progressive party and will not lend a hand—except to kick the young man down the back steps. As above stated, the astonishing part of the whole business is that there should be a continuation of the bolt. For 40 years or more Republicans have disagreed, have cussed and fussed, but on election day they have walked up, took a bite of crow and swallowed the dose. Now they say "no more crow for us."—Greensboro Record.

JAMAICA GINGER BARRED.

Topeka, Kan, July 13.—Jamaica ginger was placed under the ban in Kansas City last week when the State Supreme court held that it is intoxicating and that a druggist who sells it may be prosecuted for violation of the prohibition law.

Quick Relief When Utterly Worn Out

Getting the Blood in Order Is Required By Most People.

If you think you have gone to smash and fit only for the discard, try S. S. S. for the blood. It will surprise you to know what can be done for health once the blood is released of the excess of body wastes that keep it from exercising its full measure of bodily repair.

If you feel played out, go to any drug store and ask for a bottle of S. S. S. Here is a remedy that gets at work in a twinkling; it just naturally rushes right into your blood, scatters germs right and left, up and down and sideways.

You feel better at once, not from a stimulant, not from the action of drugs, but from the rational effect of a natural medicine.

The ingredients in S. S. S. serve the active purpose of so stimulating the cellular tissues of the body that they pick out from the blood their own essential nutriment and thus repair work begins at once. The relief is general all over the system.

Do not neglect to get a bottle of S. S. S. today. It will make you feel better in just a few minutes. It is prepared only in the laboratory of The Swift Specific Co., 530 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. OFFICERS ELECTED BY OPTICAL SOCIETY

Annual Meeting Goes to Salisbury in 1915

Address Yesterday by Dr. Woll, of New York—Mayor Moore Welcomes Visitors to Beach—Reports of Committees.

Selecting Salisbury as the place for the next meeting and electing officers for the ensuing year, the North Carolina State Optical Society, in session at the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, last night at 11 o'clock closed a busy day The visitors were welcomed to the beach yesterday morning in a most cordial manner by Mayor P. Q. Moore, following which they heard an able address by Dr. Frederic A. Woll, of the faculty of Columbia University, New York. At the afternoon session there were several addresses and also the reports of the retiring president and secretary.

The officers elected for the coming year are as follows:

President—A. S. Mitchell, Winston-Salem.

First Vice President—W. H. Leonard, Salisbury.

Second Vice President—J. W. Knight, Mt. Airy

Secretary—W. W. Parker, Lumberton.

Treasurer—Frank M. Jolly, Raleigh.

Executive Committee—Nathan Rosenstein, Durham; J. W. Taylor, Greensboro; Fred N. Day, Winston-Salem; M. V. Lomax, Raleigh

The officers elected were nominated by the committee on nominations at the evening session. Dr. Mitchell requested that his name be withdrawn for the presidency whereupon Dr. N. Rosenstein, of Durham, was nominated Dr. Rosenstein also declined to serve in this capacity and the report of the committee was then adopted as a whole.

Quite a heated discussion was brought on when the committee on by-laws made its report. The only important change recommended was to combine the offices of secretary and treasurer. Upon motion of Dr. J. W. Taylor, chairman of the committee, it was decided to lay the report aside and to continue with the present constitution and by-laws

At the opening of the night session Mr. A. H. Snyder, of the Salisbury Industrial Club, who is spending a week at the beach, presented a most cordial invitation to the convention to come to Salisbury next year. When the time came to select the next place Mr. Frank M Jolly, of Raleigh, invited the convention to meet in that city next year. President C. H. Honess also placed in nomination Asheville, reading cordial invitations from the mayor and other public men of that city. However, he did not push the nomination and later withdrew it, the final vote being between Raleigh and Salisbury. The latter won by a substantial majority.

After considerable discussion the time for the next meeting was fixed as the first Monday and Tuesday in July.

The first session of the convention which will close today was opened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock with prayer by Mr. Fred N. Day, of Winston-Salem, who is a prominent member of the association. Mayor Moore was introduced by President C. H. Honess and in his usual eloquent and cordial manner welcomed the optometrists to Wilmington and to the beach. The response was made by Mr. Day, who stated that the visitors needed no introduction to the pleasures of Wrightsville Beach as they had learned to appreciate them on previous visits.

Following the opening addresses, Dr. Woll, who has a national reputation as an eye specialist, made an excellent talk on "Association." He will be heard again at the morning session today when he will give a course in eye dissection in connection with a lecture on the anatomy of the eye. This will be one of the important features of the convention.

At the afternoon session President Honess made his annual address, which was heard with great interest. Mr. Frank M. Jolly, secretary of the society, read the report of the secretary and treasurer for the past year. Addresses were made by Dr. A. S. Mitchell, of Winston-Salem, who spoke on "Raising the Standard of Optometrical Practice; Dr. W. W. Parker, of Lumberton, who spoke on "Ignorance Versus Hyperopia," and M. V. Lomax, of Charlotte, on "Honesty and Efficiency in the Practice of Optometry."

Besides the address of Dr. Woll this morning there will also be addresses by J. Fred Tesh, of High Point, and Frank M. Jolly, of Raleigh. With practically all the routine business out of the way the day will be given over to the discussion of scientific questions, the convention adjourning this afternoon.

The semi-annual meeting of the North Carolina State Board of Examiners in Optometry wil be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at the Seashore Hotel. The members of the Board are: President, Samuel H. Eaton, Newbern; secretary and treasurer, Dr. J. W. Taylor, Greensboro; Dr. J. D. Hathaway, Elizabeth City; C. H. Honess, Asheville.

Following are the committees appointed at the morning session yesterday:

Time ad Place—J. H. Leonard, Mount Airy; Dr. S. Rapport, Durham; G. D. Palmer, Palmersville.

Resolutions—H. R. Parker, LaGrange; Rev. Fred N. Day, Winston-Salem; J. W. Knight, Mount Airy.

Nomination—Dr. J. W. Taylor, Greensboro; Rev. F. N. Day, Winston-Salem; M. V. Lomax, Charlotte.

Auditing—Dr. A. S. Mitchell, Winston-Salem; N. Rosenstein, Durham; H. R. Parker, LaGrange.

Married Sunday Morning.

Mr. Leon W. Page and Miss Ida Ruth Harton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin R. Harton, were married Sunday moring at 10 o'clock at the parsonage of Brooklyn Baptist Church Rev. J. A. Sullivan, the pastor, officiating. The ceremony was witnessed by only a few friends and relatives of the young people. Mr. Page holds a position with the Tidewater Power Company, and his bride is a charming and popular young woman. Both have many friends who will extend best wishes and congratulations.

SPECIAL RULE DAY TODAY

Cases In Admiralty and Equity Will be Heard in Federal Court. Also Motions.

Under the terms of a recent ruling by Judge Henry Groves Connor, of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina, establishing the second Tuesday of every other month a special rule day for the purpose of trying cases in admiralty and equity here, the United States District Court will be in session today and perhaps tomorrow.

Judge Connor, of Wilson, and United States Marshal W. T. Dortch, of Goldsboro, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon, and will open court this morning at 10 o'clock.

The purpose of Judge Connor in establishing the bi-monthly special rule days is to expedite the trial of cases in which there is no trial by jury, and to get such cases cleared off the docket so that the time of the regular sessions may be devoted to the trial of cases by jury.

Indications are that there will be only four cases to be heard, one in equity and three in admiralty. Two equity cases had been set for hearing, but one of them will be continued, it is understood. The case to be heard is brought by E. O. Gay and others against the Universal Plow Company, in which the plaintiff is represented by A. P. Spell, Esq., and the defendant by J. O. Carr, Esq. A case brought by A. N. DuBois against the Rocky Mount Hosiery Company will likely be continued.

The three admiralty cases to be heard do not involve large amounts. One is that of Moses King and others against the Hall Towing Company, for alleged damage to a boat. B. G. Empie, Esq., appears for the plaintiffs and the defendant is represented by Robt. Ruark, Esq. Another is brought by D. McEachern and others against the steam tug Protector, as the result of a collision on the river some months ago, when the launch Topaz was sunk and part of the cargo of a barge in tow was lost. For the plaintiff Jno. D. Bellamy, Esq., appears, while the defendant is represented by Robert Ruark, Esq.

The other admiralty cases is that of Bellamy Harriss against the Barkentine Kremlin and others, in which the plaintiff is represented by Robert Ruark, Esq., and the defendant by J. O. Carr, Esq.

In addition to the above cases, motions in a number of other cases will probably be heard.

CAPE FEAR CANAL WORK.

Splendid Progress Made at King's Bluff —Work at Brown's Landing.

The dry weather prevailing during May and June was very favorable to the canalization project for the upper Cape Fear and splendid progress was made on the dam, locks and abutment at King's Bluff. Captain Ridley, who has direct supervision at King's Bluff, is very much pleased over the outlook. The present indications are that it will be completed much earlier than was at first expected.

As noted in The Star several days ago, the plans are now to complete this work by January 1, 1915. This will be several months earlier than was contemplated even three months ago. But heavy rains may interfere with the present splendid progress.

Preparations for beginning the construction of the second set of locks and the building of the dam at Brown's Landing near Elizabethtown are going rapidly forward. The piles have been driven in the ravine for the spur track that will be constructed from Elizabethtown to the lock site. A well, 58 feet deep, has been driven from which a bountiful supply of clear, cold water is being obtained. The grubbing and grading for the lock site is now going on. The construction of the spur track will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible and it is expected that active work on the dam will be started in the early fall.

The annual meeting of the Ben Franklin Club, composed of most of the employing printers of the city, was held last night in the office of Jos. W. Little, Esq., on North Second street, practically every member being in attendance. The principal business transacted was the annual election of officers which resulted as follows:

Secretary and Treasurer—Jos. W. Little, Esq.

Reports indicated the affairs of the club in very promising condition, all the old officers being re-elected as a testimonial to their former administrations.

FUNERAL OF MISS SWANN.

Held From Family Home in Harnett County Sunday.

The funeral of Miss Josephine Swann, daughter of Mrs. Rebecca M. Swann, of this city, whose death occurred Saturday at the family country home in Harnett county, was held there Sunday. Rev. W. E. Cox, rector of St. John's Episcopal church, conducted the services and interment was in the family burying ground.

The services were largely attended by friends from all over that section of Harnett county, as well as many who went up from Wilmington. Many handsome floral designs covered the grave, attesting the sorrow felt by so many friends over the passing of a noble young woman.

—The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Health will be held in the offices of the Health Department at the court house this evening at 8:30 o'clock. So far as was known yesterday no matters of any special importance were scheduled to come up.

JAIL SENTENCE FOR ALLEN

Allowed Privilege of Being Hired Out by Commissioners — Other Cases Before Recorder.

Ed. Allen, formerly a conductor for the Tidewater Power Co., yesterday entered submission before Deputy Recorder George Harriss in two cases, charging him with violation of the prohibition law. He was sentenced to 90 days in jail with the privilege to the county commissioners of being hired out in one case and in the other case prayer for judgment was continued for 12 months, upon his giving a bond for $200 for his behavior.

Marsden Bellamy, Esq., represented the defendant and entered submission for him. He begged the mercy of the court, stating that Allen is repentant and that he has a wife and seven children. Solicitor Peschau said that while the condition of Allen's family appealed to him strongly, that since he had gone into the liquor business with his eyes open he felt that there should be some punishment.

Deputy Recorder Harriss stated that not less than 100 people had been to him to plead the cause of Allen. While most of them thought that under the circumstances he should not be punished, yet there were a number who felt that he should be punished severely. The cases against Allen were worked up under the direction of Justice Harriss.

Allen has been a trusted employee of the Tidewater Power Company for a number of years, and has many friends in the city. It is probable that they will secure sufficient funds with which to pay the amount to be named by the commissioners. He was released yesterday in the custody of his attorney until he can make the necessary arrangements with the Commissioners.

Allen ceased working for the Tidewater Power Company the day before he was arrested on the charge of selling whiskey. He has as yet made no plans for the future.

Dr. N. A. Culbreth, a well known dentist of this city, who was arrested last week on a charge of disorderly conduct, preferred by one of his neighbors, entered a plea of nolo contendere, which was accepted by the State. Judgment was suspendid upon payment of the costs.

Ed. S. Sellars, white, paid the costs for giving whiskey to an unmarried minor. James Hall, colored, was found not guilty of a charge of resisting an officer. A case against Walter McNeal, colored, charged with attempt to commit highway robbery, was continued until Wednesday. His bond was fixed at $100, which he was unable to give, and went to jail. Mr. W. F. Coleman, whom McNeal is chargegd with attempting to hold up, did not appear in court, though it was reported that he had said he was not the man.

Beulah Pickety, colored, was sent to the county farm for 30 days, on a charge of disorderly conduct. Judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs in a case against Eddie Evans, colored, charged with an assault upon a female. A case against Frank Wood, for selling whiskey was nol prossed. Annie Carter, colored, was not guilty of retailing. John Currie, charged with disorderly conduct, was discharged.

THOUGHT TO BE JENKINS.

Negro in Custody at Florence Likely Murderer Wanted Here.

A negro believed to be Ernest Jenkins, wanted in New Hanover county for the murder of Bruce Pierce, colored, at Hilton over a year ago, is serving a term of 15 days on the roads of Florence county, South Carolina, and at the expiration of his term an officer will be sent from here to identify him.

Sheriff Burch, of Florence, after an exchange of letters and telegrams with Sheriff S. P. Cowan, of this county, was in the city and at Wrightsville Beach Sunday, and the information he gave the local officers practically convinces them that the negro in custody there is the man wanted here.

After Sheriff Burch's return, he wired yesterday and asked that a warrant be sent for Jenkins, so that he could be held upon the expiration of his term there. Sheriff Cowan complied and forwarded a capias for Jenkins. Sheriff Cowan stated yesterday afternoon that as soon as the negro's term is up he will send a man to Florence to identify him.

LEAVES $10,000 TO WIDOW.

Atlanta Stereotyper Drowned at Beach Disposes of Property.

Attorneys were in the city yesterday securing affidavits and otherwise arranging for the collection of the life insurance upon the late Mr. George Arthur Scarratt, foreman of the Atlanta Constitution's stereotyping department, who was drowned at Wrightsville Beach about ten days ago and whose body has never been recovered. Affidavits as to the death of Mr. Scarratt are understood to have been taken from several of those on the boat as well as those of the rescuing party who endeavored to save the drowned man.

The will of the Atlanta man was filed in Atlanta Friday afternoon of last week and in the will he disposes of property valued at $10,000. The will is dated August 8th, 1912, and Mr. Scarratt requests that his wife, Mrs. Lula Ray Scarratt, "respond to all destitute and worthy causes that she feels are just and deserving at such times as she is able." All of the property with the exception of $100, which is left to Miss Jennie May Sloan, a niece, is bequeathed to Mrs. Scarratt. J. K. McDonald, Esq., of Atlanta, is the attorney who filed the will and will close up the estate.

TWO REALTY TRANSFERS.

Mr. U. A. Underwood Buys Country Place—Mr. Emmart's Purchase.

It was announced yesterday that a deal had been closed by which Mr. U. A. Underwood, of the firm of Rhodes & Underwood, the contractors, acquires that valuable suburban property heretofore owned by Mr. G. T. Emmart, in East Wilmington. The tract contains 7 3-4 acres and it is understood the consideration was something like $12,000.

Mr. Underwood having purchased this property from Mr. Emmart, the latter has purchased Mr. Underwood's residence at 114 South Sixth street, the consideration not having been stated. It is understood that the exchange becomes effective on August 1st.

—Messrs. J. J. Moore, S. H. Fulford and B. W. Jacobs, three popular members of the city's "finest," resumed their duties on the Wilmington police force Sunday after having spent their vacation of ten days most pleasantly.

URGES SEX INSTRUCTION.

Miss Jessie Phelps, Would Teach Children to Respect Nudity.

Detroit, July 13.—"Tell the true story to children before they have reached their fifth year and make them familiar from the first with the nude of each sex," was the advice given by Miss Jessie Phelps, professor of physiology in the Michigan State Normal College, at Ypsilanti, in the closing lecture of the good health week series at Ann Arbor.

"Children of both sexes, and adults as well, should bathe and dress together freely, frankly and without prudish apology," said Miss Phelps, and she expressed the opinion that pictures and statues of the beautiful nude should have a place in homes where the adults can show the right regard for the body.

"In all ways the body must be respected and honored," said she, "but not tampered with or coddled."

Miss Phelps' topic was the much-discussed "Teaching of Sex Hygiene in the Schools." She said she believed in giving sex instruction in the schools, though she emphatically stated that she believed "nothing specifically called sex hygiene should be given in the schools."

She said that such instruction should also be given in the home and that the parents and the teachers should work together in this matter as in no other.

"School athletics are often disapproved by anxious mothers, when these rough-and-ready games, if properly supervised, are, perhaps, just the thing that will save the boys' sex impulses from running riot. In this same way the girls need exercise in developing their social instincts, and nothing could be much better than the campfire organiaziton, if the right teahers are chosen," said Miss Phelps.

How English Beauties Keep Faces Youthful

Christian Miller, F. C. I., noted English health expert, attributes the early aging of American women mainly to the "national nervousness." The women of England, she says, can teach us the inestimable lesson of repose.

Another valuable lesson to be learned from the English woman is that she does not go in much for cosmetics, the continual use of which must ruin any complexion. The beauty devotees of King George's realm have the mercolized wax habit, a more wholesome method of keeping the face girlish-looking and healthy. Ordinary mercolized wax, used like cold cream, rejuvenates the worst complexion. Women here may easily acquire the habit, this wax being obtainable at drug stores generally in the United States and Canada. It is applied at night and washed off in the morning. One ounce is sufficient to completely renovate a bad complexion. It has a peculiar action in keeping the face free from the particles of dead and devitalized scarf skin which are constantly appearing.

FOR UNSIGHTLY COMPLEXIONS USE RESINOL

Pimples and blackheads disappear, unsightly complexions become clean, clear, and velvety, and hair health and beauty are promoted by the regular use of Resinol Soap and an occasional application of Resinol Ointment. These soothing, healing preparations do their work easily, quickly and at little cost, when even the most expensive cosmetics and complicated beauty treatments fail.

Resinol is not an experiment. It is a doctor's prescription which proved so wonderfully successful for skin troubles that it has been used by other doctors all over the country for nineteen years. No other treatment for the skin now before the public can show such a record of professional approval. SOME ENJOYABLE SOCIAL EVENTS IN TOWN OF WARSAW.

Warsaw, N. C., July 13.—A number of young people of the town enjoyed a picnic at Cooper's Mill, given in honor of Miss Mary Whitaker, of Wilson, who is the guest of Miss Margaret Best, on Wednesday afternoon. Four automobiles carried the guests, chaperoned by Mrs. J. H. Pierce, Misses Anna Pierce, and Mattie Hines, and Dr. J. H. Williams, to the delightful spot where the afternoon was spent in various pastimes. The ladies served a dainty repast, after which the moonlight ride back to town added much to the pleasures of the afternoon.

The Baptist Young People's Union under the management of Miss Olivia Best, assisted by Misses Louise Anderson and Lou Mitchell Faison, gave a very delightful entertainment on Friday evening on the college campus from 8 to 11 o'clock, complimentary to the young people of the town. Music was furnished by the Warsaw orchestra, and a contest in which the good the society had accomplished during the two years since it was first organized here was greatly enjoyed.

Today's bill of motion pictures at the South's most famous pavilion, is headed by a mammoth two-reel Lubin feature release, "A Son of His Father." This is an interesting and heart touching drama, enacted by an all-star cast of Lubin players, and will be found one of the most interesting offerings seen in some time. "The Janitor's Quiet Life" is a brand new rousing comedy by the Edison company, which well supports this important end of any movie show. It's an irresistible laugh producer, and will be found one of the best.

The idea of "Atlanta" night, which is to be the attraction at Lumina next Friday night, was one of the suggestions received by the Tidewater Power Company in answer to the recent announcement in which the company offered to pay $5 for novel ideas for the entertainment of the public at Lumina. If "Atlanta" night proves a success, which it undoubtedly will, it is likely that the idea will be extended to include other well represented localities at Wrightsville Beach.

The other contestants, receiving white ribbons, indicating those selected in the first elimination were Miss Katharin Scott and Mr. Morgan Fenley; Mrs. Boylston, of Raleigh, and Mr. J. Elks by The Thousand Attend Meeting at Denver—Seattle Comes Next.

Denver, Col., July 13.—The Golden Jubilee of the Grand Lodge of Benovelent and Protective Order of Elks and the eighth annual national reunion of the order began formally tonight with exercises at the municipal auditorium.

No opposition to the election of Raymond Benjamin, associate attorney general of California, to succeed Grand Exalted Ruler Edward Leach of New York developed today.

Sentiment favoring the selection of Seattle as the reunion city in 1915 apparently has become general.

Grand Esteemed Leading Knight Patrick H. Shields, Clarksburg, W. Va., is seeking re-election.

LIGHTNING KILLS FAMILY.

The Moores were picking berries on their farm near Locust Grove. When the storm arose they hurried beneath a big tree, and a moment later it was demolished by a bolt of lightning. Their bodies were not found until neighbors, alarmed over their absence began a search.

MADE NO EFFORT TO TAKE CHILD AWAY.

Mrs. Eliza Newton's Attorney Presents Complaint of Husband.

(Raleigh News and Observer.)

Hon Franklin McNeill, attorney for Mrs. Eliza Newton, produces the complaint of J. Sprunt Newton, wherein habeas corpus is instituted to gain the possession of their four and a half year old child, and shows that Mrs. Newton has made no effort to take her child to Florida.

A recent article in The News and Observer carried the story that Mr. Newton had brought this action before Chief Justice Walter Clark and that R. H. Dye, attorney for Mr. Newton, had alleged that Mrs. Newton was believed to be making an effor to take her daughter to Florida. "There is not a word like that in the complaint," Mr. McNeill said, "and I desire simply that the public have the benefit of that knowledge.

"The complaint doesn't mention Florida. All that we ask is that The News and Observer say this. If attorneys in presenting the cast to Judge Clark made use of that argument, I have no objection to make to that. I merely wish it understood that Mrs. Newton is not charged in this complaint with having tried to spirit her daughter to Florida. And as a matter of fact, she has no such intention. She has been to Florida recently but she is not trying to take the child there."

The complaint does not refer to any such circumstance and merely mentions that until August of 1913, Mr. and Mrs. Newton lived happily together. They were married in 1907. Mrs. Newton has had the child since and each is seeking the daughter's possession. The case will be heard before Judge George W. Connor July 16 of this week.

FAMOUS BELLE STARVES

Alice Norton, American, Once Considered Most Beautiful Woman

Paris, July 12.—Alice Norton, an American, who 15 years ago was one of the best-known figures in the restaurant and boulevard life of Paris and was equally well known in New York, died last week in a Mountmartre garret from starvation.

A few months ago she disappeared from her old haunts and nobody knew of her straits until a few days before she died she sent word to Mme. Miskinoff (Mrs. Jackson Gouraud), who visited her and was with her when she died and buried her.

Miss Norton was once reported to be engaged to Newton Eustis, the son of the then American Minister in Paris. She was considered the most beautiful woman here. She possessed two magnificent boarhounds that followed her in her daily promenades in the boulevards and sat with her at a famous cafe near the Madeleine, where she always lunched.

She retained her beauty to the end. Her tall, slender figure and hair were familiar in American restaurants, where in later years she usually called only for the purpose of discovering some acquaintance of her more prosperpus era from whom she might obtain a loan.

Six months ago an arrangement was made through the American Church to send her to friends in America and a steamship ticket was furnished, which she refused, saying that she would not let her home folks know the poverty into which she had fallen.

She later attempted to found a bureau for American shoopers for the purpose of giving advice concerning dress and purchases in the Rue de la Paix, but failed to find backing for the undertaking.

BATTLE OF BOYNE CELEBRATED IN IRELAND WITHOUT CLASH

Factions Recognize the Responcibility —Two Armed Armies in Ireland.

Ulster, July 13.—The recognition of the danger inherent in the existence of two armed volunteer bodies seems to have imbued Irishmen with a sense of added respon sibility, for the battle of the Boyne was commemorated today in Ireland with tremendous enthusiasm, but with less disorder than in previous years.

Following the custom, a great procession marched from Belfast to Drumbeg, where Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster Unionist leader, made his now familiar speech defying the government either to exclude Ulster from home rule or come out and fight.

Nationalist and Orange processions at Glendermot reached the stage of jeering but the police succeeded in keeping them apart until the danger was over.

One feature of the situation seems to be that while Sir Edward Carson and the other leaders are using unrestrained language, both Ulstermen and Nationalists are showing admirable self control. Another feature is that the more defiant the Ulster leaders speeches become the more pronouncde becomes the feeling among the members of parliament on both sides that a satisfactory compromise eventually will be reached.

Premier Asquith announced in the House of Commons today that the present session of parliament wouldd come to an end about the close of August.

LANE MAY BE APPOINTED SUPREME COURT JUSTICE.

Rumors in Washington That Secretary of Interior to Go on Bench.

Washington, July 13.—Although President Wilson has not begun serious consideration of the appointment of a successor to the late Justice Lurton, of the United States Supreme court, it was reported tonight in circles to the White House that he would lose no time in making a choice.

Secretary Lane of the Interior Department, is regarded as more likely to be named than any of the many possibilities mentioned in spite of the fact that the President is known to be very unwilling to break up his cabinet.

Judge Alton B. Parker, Democratic Presidential nominee in 1904, and others are being talked of as possibilities.

Reports that former President Taft might be offered the position are said to be entirely without foundation because the President wants a man looked upon more as a progressive. The American Civic Society held a meeting here today and adopted a resolution suggesting that legal and commercial organizations call the attention of the President to Mr. Taft's eligibility to fill the vacancy.

SHARP ADVANCE IN COTTON

Brought on by Apprehension of the Drouth Damage in Southwest —Prices Later Eased Off.

New York, July 13.—Apprehensions of drouth damage in the southwest caused a sharp advance in the cotton market early today, but considerable realizing was encountered and prices later eased off with Wall Street rather an active factor toward the close on reports of unfavorable political developments in Great Britain. Last prices were barely steady with old crop months relatively easy, and with the general list two points lower to seven points net higher.

The market opened firm at an advance of 9 to 14 points on relatively firm cables and the failure of weather advices to indicate any important rainfall in the southwest over Sunday. The official western belt forecast for generally fair weather tonight and tomorrow, added to the anxiety of the trade over the Texas crop outlook and prices sold 14 to 18 points net higher during the early trading. There was some foreign and southern buying as well as covering of shorts on this advance. Immediate demand seemed to taper off, however, while offerings were liberal enough to suggest quite a general disposition among recent buyers to take profits, and prices gradually eased off. The report of a traveling crop expert indicating a favorable immediate condition in Texas, although noting a need of rain within the next few days probably promoted a tendency to take profits, while there may also be reason to believe that the census on supply and distribution due tomorrow will show a considerable falling off in domestic mill consumption for June as compared with previous months this season. Offerings became more active in the late trading, with July closing at a net loss, while August showed a gain of three points and later months four to seven points higher.

Cotton futures closed steady:

GENUINE ECZEMA REMEDY.

New Remedy That Heals Eczema Quickly.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., sold hundreds of jars of Hokara, and although they offered to refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied purchaser, not one jar has been returned.

While this is surprising in itself, yet the most marvelous thing is the reports of chronic cases of eczema that have been cured by this simple skin food. People who have suffered with scales, scabs and even bleeding itching have found relief in Hokara.

No matter where the eczema, pimples or other breaking out occurs, whether on the face, hands, legs or body, the application of Hokara should give quick relief, and even the worst or most chronic cases should be cured in a short time.

You can buy a liberal sized jar today at the very low price of 25 cents, and with every package goes J. Hicks Bunting's guarantee to refund the money if it is not satisfactory.

STOCK MARKET UNSETTLED

Caused by Continued Selling of Securities Thought to Represent Liquidation.

New York, July 13.—Continued selling of securities, a goodly part of which was believed to represent liquidation, today caused further unsettlement in the stock market. The movement differed from that of last week in that it offered most of the high grades issues. A noteworthy feature was the persistent offering of Canadian Pacific. It sustained a net loss of 4 1-8 points. The selling was ascribed to commission brokers presumably acting for home clients.

United States was another leader to decline, and Union Pacific coalers and metal shares declined from 1 to 2 points. New Haven and other issues of the same class were again weak, the former declining to interests recent low record, while some of the Gould stocks added to their recently severe losses. The arraignments of New Haven's former management by the Inter-State Commerce Commission had little dealings, and the tone at the close was weak, New Haven, however, reflecting some buying.

London was a moderate buyer here despite dull conditions at home. Money rates were nominally higher.

In the bond list half a score of low priced issues lost from 7 to 10 1-2 points, the latter being the extent of the decline in one of the New Haven subsidiaries. Total sales, par value, $1,937,000.

DEEDS, NOT WORDS

Wilmington People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home.

It's not words but deeds that prove true merit.

The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills. For Wilmington kidney sufferers, Have made their local reputation.

Proof lies in the testimony of Wilmington people.

Mrs. J. E. Marshburn, 516 Castle St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "My back and kidneys were in bad shape and I had dull pains through my loins, together with headaches and kidney weakness. In the morning, when I got up, I was tired and languid and had but little strength with which to begin the day's work. After I had used part of one box of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Bellamy's Drug Store, I improved, and it was not long before my kidneys were restored to their proper working order. I have no hesitation in re-endorsing Doan's Kidney Pills. They are certainly a good backache and kidney medicine."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Marshburn had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Sleeveless Gowns Require Hairless Arms

Fashion says sleeveless, low-necked gowns for this season. This means hairless arms and neck, if you do not want to be humiliated. J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. say that the safest, best and quickest way to be absolutely free from all trace of superfluous hair is to use the famous medical prescription known as Mrs. Osgood's Wonder for Superfluous Hair.

It is delightful to use and absolutely harmless. A single application makes hair on face, neck, arms, hands, or any other part of the body quickly disappear.

The cost is small, and J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. will supply you, or in fact, any up-to-date druggist or department store, on a Money-Back guarantee basis.

GRAND JURY TO PROBE MYSTERIOUS MURDER

Killing of Mrs. Bailey to Be Investigated

Dr. Carman in Whose Office Woman Met Tragic Death, to be First Witness Before Jury When It Convenes Today.

Freeport, N. Y., July 13.—The grand jury will begin tomorrow its investigation into the murder of Mrs. Louise Bailey who was mysteriously shot in the office of Dr. Edwin Carman the night of June 30th. Dr. Carman's wife is now in Mineola jail, charged with the crime. The physician will be the first witness.

While District Attorney Smith was completing the preparation of his evidence today, detectives made a fruitless search along both sides of country roads for the revolver used by the murderer. They followed the route which Dr. Carman is known to have taken, the day after the shooting, in calling on patients.

Mrs. Carman's attorney, examined in jail today Elwood T. Bardes, the prosecution's chief witness, who testified at the coroner's inquest that he was passing the Carman home when the fatal shot was fired and saw a woman, whom he described, but could not identify, moving from the office window toward the rear of the yard.

The examination of Bardes, who has been locked up as a material witness, was the result of an agreement whereby Mrs. Carman will waive immunity and appear before the grand jury in exchange for the permission to examine Bardes. The doctor's wife will probably tell her own story Wednesday.

MARINES ARE ORDERED TO STRIFE-TORN HAIT

ed today's action in the following statement:

"Numerous appeals from time to time have been made for the protection of American life and property on the island of Haiti, which has been jeopardized by various bands of revolutionists operating both in Haiti and San Domingo. Dispatches from there indicate that these conditions will probably continue for some time. It has been decided to place a small force of marines where they will be available in case an emergency should arise which would make it advisable for them to be on hand for the protection of life and property.

"The acting Secretary of the Navy, at the request of the State Department, has accordingly directed that the United States ship Hancock proceed from Vera Cruz to Guantanamo and there land about 295 marines 110 of them having been taken from Vera Cruz and 185 from a special service squadron in Mexican waters, mainly from the New York and Texas.

"After landing the marines, the Hancock will proceed to Hampton Roads to take aboard 400 additional marines and return with them to Guantanamo.

"In addition to the above, the gunboat Sacramento has been ordered from Puerto Mexico to Guantanamo. This action is taken merely as a precaution and it is hoped that no conditions will arise that will require services of this force."

The navy already has in Haiten and Dominican waters the battleships Connecticut and South Carolina and the cruisers Marietta, Castine and Machias.

CONSOLIDATION URGED BY MISSOURI SENATOR

said to be growing in favor of it, however, and Senator Reed was drawing a resolution on the subject when the Senate adjourned.

Senator Reed declared that the "unfair competition" section of the trade commission bill would dispel public sentiment in favor of trust legislation without giving the people a single remedy not already accorded them by the courts. Moreover, he declared, he did not believe the people ever would sanction a bill which would place the business of the country in the control of a board governed by no rule of conduct except its own conceptions of right and wrong.

The judiciary committee expects to complete its draft of the Clayton bill tomorrow. The section relating to punishment of individuals is being rewritten in order to make it more binding. The bill to regulate issuance of securities of common carriers by the Inter-State Commerce Commission has not yet been completed by the Inter-State Commerce committee, which seemed to be deadlocked today on several important features.

RATE HEARING WILL LIKELY CLOSE TODAY

speaker at the afternoon session, and at the first night session of the commission, which lasted until almost midnight, arguments were presented by E. T. Cansler, of the Seaboard Air Line; George Elliott, of the Atlantic Coast Line, and W. B. Rodman, of the Norfolk Southern.

In line with the evidence submitted by their witnesses, the attorneys for the railroads declared that the proposed bill if put into effect will mean disaster for the railroads which, it was declared, will be forced to operate in this State at a loss.

Judge Winston's argument was to the effect that North Carolina has grown in spite of the railroads and that industries have been driven from this State by reason of the excessive and discriminatory rates. He maintained that the railroads are making money and can afford to operate under the new rates.

WROTE RAILROAD FREIGHT RATE DECISION FOR INRERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

JAMES S. HARLAN.

Washington, July 11.—James S. Harlan, of Illinois, a member of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, has booked passage for Europe on July 24, and the rate decision, it is said, may not be ready much before then. It is understood Mr. Harlan has written the decision. It is predicted the full increase asked for will be granted on only a few classes of merchandise, that small increases will be allowed on others, but that no change will be made in rates for commodities—coal, grain and other staples forming a large part of railroads' tonnage The result, as a whole, is expected to be only moderately favorable. It is rumored that on certain essential features of the case the commission is divided, four members favoring certain advances in rates and the other three disagreeing. A "split" opinion is looked for. Wall Street agents here say business in the street will not pick up until the decision is made public. If it is anyway favorable to the eastern railroads which demand an average 5 per cent. increase in freight rates a big boom in railroad securities is predicted.

ALLEGED KIDNAPPER IS CAUGHT AT LEXINGTON

He and Little Harnett Girl Tell Terrible Story

Petty and Nettie Holder Claim That Father Basely Mistreated Her and "Kidnapping" Was to Save Her.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Lexington, N. C., July 13.—I. M. Petty, wanted in Harnett county for kidnapping Hettie Holder, the 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. W. Holder, was arrested here this afternoon late by Officers Thomason and Caule. He and the girl were traveling in a buggy. Tonight they are in the custody of Sheriff Shaw, who is trying to communicate with the Harnett authorities.

Petty is about 50 years old. He wears a heavy mustache and beard and seems to be a very excitable sort of person. He says that he has been teaching the little girl music for three years and has become very much attached to her. A few months ago the child's father, he says, lost all he had and moved to a small station named Manor somewhere on the new railroad that runs through Harnett and, since going to that place, he has not been treating Nettie right.

In fact, he states that the father has become so debased that he has made a prostitute of his child and that he has been living off of her earnings. He said that it was for the purpose of rescuing her from this sort of life that he carried her away from Spring Hill church in Harnett county on July 5.

He relates a number of instances tending to show that his story is correct, and says that he can prove all of it. The little girl bears him out in his story. She says that he is telling the truth and she has no desire to go home to her mother. She also says that Petty treats her well.

She is a slender little girl. She says that she is 12 years old and looks it. She is certainly not much older. She has a good face with very fine eyes and she is very modest in demeanor. She has made a good impression on all who have seen her here.

The four companys are liable to fines of more than a million dollars if convictions are secured.

SEEK ATTITUDE OF THE UNITED STATES

tosi. The Constitutionalist forces will seek to effect his capture.

Carranza Stands Firm.

Saltillo, Mexico, July 13.—Unconditional surrender is the only condition on which General Carranza will treat with President Huerta and his party. In a statement today purporting to represent the views of General Carranza, Isidro Fabela, Constitutionalist minister of foreign affairs, declared that the Constitutionalists never could agree to the plan of the mediators for a provisional presidency in Mexico. Such an agreement, it was asserted, would mean the recognition of Huerta's acts and would prevent the carrying out of certain reforms to which the Constitutionalists are pledged.

The acceptance of a provisional presidency under suggested conditions, Fabela declares, "would leave the Federal army armed and unpunished which would be a menace and might lead to the renewal of hostilities."

Villa Disagrees.

Chihuahua, Mexico, July 13.—General Francisco Villa tonight, in commenting on the proposed retirement of General Huerta and the creation of a provisional presidency at Mexico City said such a course would not be acceptable either to General Carranza or himself, no matter who the provisional president might be. Nothing but an entry unde rarms of the Consititutionalists forces would bring the revolution to a successful and logical conclusion, he said.

The victory of the Constitutionalist must be complete, Villa said, which would not be the case in the event any part of the Huerta government was incorporated into the next administration to be established in Mexico.

Huerta Prepares The Way.

Mexico City, Mex., July 13.—The chief engineer of the Mexican Railway left here for Vera Cruz today to superintend the work of repairing the gap in the railway outside the American lines.

The formal presentational of Francisco Carabajal, the new appointed minister of foreign affairs to the diplomatic corps took p lace today. Ten ministers and five charges, representing the power here, met the new head of the cabinet.

MYSTIC RUSSIAN MONK STABBED BY A WOMAN.

Real Power Behind the Throne in Russia is Mortally Wounded.

St. Petersburg, July 13.—The mystic lay Monk, Gregory Rasputin, a notable figure in the Emperor's court, was stabbed recently by a woman named Guzeva at his native village, Pekrovsky, in the province of Tobolsk, Siberia. One report has it that he died, another that his wound was not mortal.

The attack on Rasputin has excited intense interest in court and official circles here. He recently was recalled to the Emperor's household after an absance of several months, and was credited with exercising an influence over the Emperor far more potent than any of his ministers. He was regarded in some quarters as the supreme power behind the throne.

The woman Guzeva had been tracking him for a long time. She finally approached him in the guise of a beggar and stabbed him in the abdomen. She was prevented from stabbing the Monk a second time by Rasputin's son.

When arrested the woman declared she wanted to avenge one of Rasputin's girl victims, who is in a convent. In her cell the woman attempted to commit suicide by cutting her wrist with a piece of glass.

ROOSEVELT THINKS WOMEN SHOULD BE REPRESENTED.

At the Constitutional Convention in New York Next Year.

New York, July 13.—It would be rank injustice, in the opinion of Theodore Roosevelt, for women to be unrepresented at the Constiutional convention to be held in New York next year. In so declaring in a letter addressed to Mrs. Lillian D. Wald, Col. Roosevelt says:

"I trust open action will be taken by the Progressive party to insist upon the election of women delegates to the convention. Any discussion as to whether women are eligible is really academic, in view of the fact that many women do hold public office in this State."
